Columbia woman dies in car wreck near Bishopville

BISHOPVILLE — A 70-year-old Columbia woman was killed Monday morning in a single-vehicle wreck on Interstate 20 near Bishopville.

According to S.C. Highway Patrol spokesman Lance Cpl. Josef Robinson, Mary Jane Richardson, 70, a passenger in the back seat of a 2001 black Mercedes four-door sedan, was ejected from the vehicle when her husband, Leo Richardson, 73, apparently fell asleep at the wheel near mile marker 118 just after 9 a.m. The car went off the right side of the road, striking a bridge embankment, and overturned several times.

Mary Richardson, who was reportedly not wearing a seat belt, was transported to Palmetto Health Richland in Columbia, where she died about 10:30 a.m.

Leo Richardson and his son, Alfred Richardson, 42, of Conyers, Ga., were transported to McLeod Regional Hospital in Florence where they were treated for non-life-threatening injuries. Both were wearing seat belts, Robinson said. Robinson said Mrs. Richardson was lying on the back seat when the accident occurred.

Family Tributes

To the love of my life, you will always be missed. Love, Leo

Farewell my sweet angel, until we meet again. Love, Sandra

Thank you for believing in me when others doubted me. Thank you for keeping our family together when times were tough. But most importantly, thank you for being you. They don't make them like you anymore. Love Always, Alfred

Mummy - I look into the mirror and I see you. You've taught me kindness, humility and how to be a servant to God. Only you know how deeply I love and miss you. Always, Beverly

A PSALM OF DAVID

Psalm 23

The Lord is my Shepherd. I Shall not want, He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path's of righteousness for his names sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies, thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my Life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord, FOREVER.
